Terms and Conditions

1. Tickets are sold subject to the theatre's right to make any alterations to the advertised time, programme or cast as a result of circumstances beyond its control without being obliged to refund monies or exchange tickets.
2. Tickets cannot be exchanged or refunded unless the show is cancelled. If a performance is cancelled ticket holders will be offered alternative performances (subject to availability) up to the seat value on their ticket.
3. Every member of the audience, including children, must be in possession of a valid ticket, which must be produced to gain entry to the theatre.
4. The ticket holder has a right only to a seat of the value corresponding to that stated on the ticket and the management reserves the right to provide alternative seats to those stated on the ticket.
5. If tickets are resold or transferred for profit or commercial gain by anyone other than a person authorised by the theatre, then they will become void and the holder may be refused entry or ejected from the venue.
6. Any comments or complaints, including the ability to view or hear the show, should be made promptly to the theatre manager before or during the performance.
7. Latecomers will be admitted to the auditorium when a suitable break in the performance occurs but admission cannot always be guaranteed.
8. The theatre reserves the right to refuse admission to or to remove audience members displaying aggressive behaviour or acting in any other unreasonable manner.
9. The use of photography and recording equipment of any kind is prohibited. Unauthorised recordings will be confiscated and deleted.
10. Mobile phones, pagers, digital watches, laser pens or any other electronic equipment should be disabled when members of the audience are inside the auditorium.
11. Audience members may not consume their own food and drink in the theatre.
12. Security searches may be conducted to ensure the safety of all audience members and your cooperation in conducting these is appreciated.
13. Audience members consent to the filming and sound recording of themselves as members of the audience.
14. The theatre does not accept responsibility for the loss or damage of any personal property.
